Dear Ms. Paoli:

This letter will confirm the e-mail that I sent to you today. A hearing before the Campus Judicial Committee on the initial complaint forwarded to you by a letter dated April 13, 2006, from Dean Hicks-Goldstein and the second complaint forwarded to you under cover of Dean Hicks-Goldstein's April 24, 2006 letter will be held on Wednesday, May 10, 2006. The hearing will be conducted at the Wilmington Campus in Conference Room 202 in the Southeast Building and will begin promptly at 1:00 p.m. The procedure for the hearing will be as set forth in Section VI of the Student Rights and Standards of Student Conduct Policy, a copy of which was sent to you by Dean Hicks-Goldstein with each complaint. Please be prepared to present any witnesses or documents that you would like the committee to consider at that time. I have allotted two hours for the hearing.

Very truly yours,

I received my certified letter on 5-9-06. However, I did know about this, by e-mail on 5-5-06. He told me if I had a medical excuse, the hearing would be rescheduled. He held the hearing
anyway and broke
his promise.
